

Technical Considerations

The motorcycle chain covers a big roll in transmitting the power to the wheel. Its continuous bending absorbs a lot of power and it is liable to lengthen due to unavoidable wear. Whether to reduce the power absorption or to avoid excessive lengthening a proper lubrication is requested. Spray Grease has the capacity first to penetrate between the link and pin, than to leave a dry coating layer made by micronized PTFE particles. It does not affect the rubber rings.