

Technical Considerations

Protector Racing Formula has been formulated to prevent metal contact on new engines especially where the coupling play is particularly reduced. Metal surfaces are coated with a very thin layer which avoids the contact even in case of boundary lubrication.